DESCRIPTION

The Märket shell jacket is named after the lighthouse standing high and mighty in the sea of Åland. It's made of vapor permeable and water tight Ursuit 4-Tex® fabrics, same as we use in some of our drysuits.

The jacket is designed to give the best mobility and comfort in any situation. It has a big attached hood that gives you the possibility to wear a hat or a cap underneath, and it can be adjusted to a very precise fit. The sleeves can be tightened against the wrist. The pockets on the jacket are big, and have splash proof zippers. There is also one zippered pocket inside the jacket.

The jacket is equipped with two attached D-rings, one in the neck and one down on the back side. The D-rings are ideal for attaching and hanging fishing etc. equipment. The jacket has one inner pocket that can be closed with a zipper.

The jacket is available in: red, navy black and camo.

Get the best experience by pairing the jacket with the Märket shell trousers!
